Lem Chin Kok

Partner; Head of Risk Consulting; Head of Forensic, Asia Pacific

KPMG LLP (Singapore)

Lem Chin Kok is the chairman of the Institute of Singapore Chartered Accountants (ISCA) Financial Forensic Accounting Oversight Committee. He assisted in the design and development of the ISCA financial forensic professional program, the first applied learning financial forensic qualification developed by a professional qualification body in the region.

Mr. Chin Kok is also a board member of the Goods and Services Tax Board of Review, one of the Tax Boards under the Ministry of Finance and an administrative tribunal established under the Goods and Services Tax Act to adjudicate disputes between taxpayers and the Comptroller of Goods and Services Tax (Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore).

Mr. Chin Kok is the Head of KPMG's Forensic practice in Asia Pacific and leads the Singapore and Indonesia Forensic practice. Prior to joining KPMG about eighteen years ago, he was the Regional Finance Manager of a Singapore-listed company, where he managed the entire financial functions of the group's regional subsidiaries. He started his career with the Singapore Police Force more than twenty-five years ago, where he specialized in the investigation of white collar crimes such as criminal breach of trust, forgery, and cheating.
