Lisandro Herrera

Partner

Galicia (Mexico City)

Lisandro is a highly specialized health and life sciences lawyer, and passionate about his work. After having served in leadership positions at international pharmaceutical companies, trade associations and specialized law firms, Lisandro joined Galicia in the Life Sciences practice.

He has a deep knowledge of the challenges that the health sector faces in its various industries, such as health services, pharmaceutical, medical devices, food and beverages, information technologies and controlled substances. Lisandro has extensive experience in healthcare regulation, public procurement processes, pharmaceutical regulation and regulatory compliance. Additionally, he actively participates in various trade associations in the health sector.

As a member of the academic community, Lisandro is frequently asked to speak in national and international forums on legal trends in healthcare and life sciences. He is the Academic Coordinator for the Specialized Health law course at Escuela Libre de Derecho, and a professor at Universidad Panamericana.

Lisandro studied Law at Escuela Libre de Derecho and has a Master's Degree in International Law from the University of Liverpool.

He is recognized as an expert by renowned international publications, such as Chambers Latin American Guide and The Legal 500 Latin American Guide, in the Life Sciences practice. Other specialized international publications highlight his "great mastery of subject matter" and "a work style that easily adapts to the needs of clients."
