

Lou Rambeau

Associate General Counsel

Carbon Arc

Lou is an Associate General Counsel at Carbon Arc, where she focuses on product counseling in the realm of AI and data. Prior to going in-house at a tech startup, Lou was an Associate in the Regulatory & Compliance practice at McDermott Will & Schulte. Lou received her J.D. from Tulane University Law School, where she was as a member of the Tulane Law Review, a Student Attorney in the First Amendment Clinic, and a Senior Fellow for the Legal Research & Writing class. Lou received her undergraduate degree in Art History from Tulane University with a minor concentration in Psychology. She serves as a member of the NYC Bar Association's LGBTQ+ Rights Committee and is admitted to practice law in New York.