

SETON HALL | LAW

Healthcare Compliance
Certificate Program

Marc Larkins

Senior Counsel

Johnson & Johnson

mlarkins@ITS.JNJ.com

Since September 2015, Marc Larkins has been responsible for managing government litigation, investigations, and internal compliance reviews. His work spans the pharmaceutical, medical device, and consumer sectors, and requires collaboration with compliance, internal audit, human resources, and business leaders.

Prior to joining Johnson & Johnson, Mr. Larkins served as the Acting State Comptroller for the State of New Jersey. He was named to that independent post by Governor Chris Christie in December 2013. There, Mr. Larkins led a staff responsible for conducting audits, investigations, and performance reviews at all levels of New Jersey government. The office audited government finances, examined the efficiency of government programs, investigated misconduct by government officers, scrutinized the legality of government contracts, and recovered improperly expended Medicaid funds.

From 2010 to 2013, Mr. Larkins served as Chief Executive Officer of the New Jersey Schools Development Authority, where he was responsible for the management and implementation of the state's school construction program throughout New Jersey. He previously served in various capacities as an Assistant United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey, where he held positions of Acting First Assistant United States Attorney, Executive Assistant United States Attorney, and Acting Counsel to the United States Attorney. Throughout, he was involved in the oversight and management of all operations of the U.S. Attorney's Office, and supervised a number of units, including as Acting Chief of the Terrorism Unit and Chief of the Government Fraud Unit. He prosecuted public corruption cases in the Special Prosecutions Division and narcotics cases in the Organized Crime and Drug Enforcement Task Force of the U.S. Attorney's Office.

Mr. Larkins began his legal career as a law clerk to the now retired Honorable James H. Coleman, Jr., the first African-American Justice on the New Jersey Supreme Court. Mr. Larkins then served as a law clerk to the Honorable Joseph A. Greenaway, Jr., United States Third Circuit Court of Appeals, while Judge Greenaway sat on the District Court. In 1999, Mr. Larkins was accepted into the Attorney General's Honors Program at the United States Department of Justice in

SETON HALL | LAW

Healthcare Compliance
Certificate Program

Washington, D.C. He served as a trial attorney in the Criminal Division for a little over three years, specializing in domestic and international narcotics prosecutions.

Mr. Larkins spent his early childhood in Newark, New Jersey, and was raised in Irvington, New Jersey. He currently resides in Millstone Township with his wife and daughters. He received his undergraduate degree in accounting from Seton Hall University and his Juris Doctorate from Seton Hall University School of Law.