Martín Javier Mosteirín joined Marval O'Farrell Mairal in 2003 and is a partner in the Health Law and Sanitary Law Department.

His practice focuses on the biopharmaceutical, healthcare, health-tech, medical, dental, cosmetic, personal and household hygiene, food, animal food and health, and agribusiness (seeds, agrochemicals, herbicides, insecticides, fungicides, fertilizers, GMOs and other related products) industries, among other sectors. He provides contentious and non-contentious legal advice to leading multinational companies, focusing primarily on regulatory and compliance strategies in a wide variety of matters, from day-to-day advice on the business's direction to complex multinational transactions involving start-ups, joint ventures, M&A and spin-offs, product liability and recalls, contracts, compliance training and monitoring, audits and investigations, administrative procedures and litigation (judicial and prejudicial), and general civil and commercial advice. Martín assists his clients by providing sophisticated, high-quality work and a multidisciplinary approach to complex projects, maximizing the outcome for the client.

He graduated as a lawyer from the University of Buenos Aires in 2002 and then completed two specializations at the same university: the first, in Regulatory Affairs of the Pharmaceutical Industry (School of Medicine), and the second, in Business Consulting on International Purchase and Sale of Goods, Financial Operations and Payment Methods in Contemporary Commercial Law (School of Law). He also completed the certification in the Latin America Healthcare Compliance Certification Program at Seton Hall School of Law (US University), and is a member of the LATAM Advisory Board for the development of the program in Latin America.

Martín regularly participates as a speaker at various conferences and seminars on health and health law issues, and has written numerous articles in his area of practice.

He is an active member of the Life Sciences Practice Group of the International Bar Association (IBA - Life Sciences), the Health Care and Life Sciences Practice Group of Lex Mundi, the Health Group of AmCham, the Food Lawyers Network (FLN) and the Public Bar Association of the Federal Capital.
