Martín joined Marval O'Farrell Mairal in 2003 and is a partner of the Life Sciences and Healthcare Departments.

His areas of expertise are the bio-pharmaceutical, healthcare, health-tech, medical devices, dental products, cosmetics, toiletries and perfumes, households cleaning products, food industry, animal health and food, food contact products, and agribusiness (seeds, agrochemicals, herbicides, insecticides, fungicides, fertilizers, growth regulators, GMOs and other related products), among other industries.

He provides both contentious and non-contentious legal advice to leading global companies on regulatory strategies and compliance matters ranging from the client's day-to-day business to complex cross-border transactions, start-ups, joint ventures, M&As, spin-offs, product liability and recalls, contracts, compliance training, monitoring, audits and investigations, (trial and pre-trial) administrative proceedings and litigation, and civil and commercial advice in general. Martin helps his clients by delivering sophisticated, high-quality and multi-practice work in cross-discipline matters for complex projects, enhancing the outcome for the client.

Martín graduated from Universidad de Buenos Aires with a law degree in 2002 and later completed two specializations there: one in Pharmaceutical Regulatory Matters at the School of Medicine and the other in Corporate Advice in International Trade of Goods, Financial Operations and Payment Methods in Contemporary Commercial Law at the School of Law. He is also certified in the Latin America Healthcare Compliance Certification Program from Seton Hall School of Law (US University), and is a member of its LATAM Advisory Board for developing the Latin-American program.

Martín is frequently invited to speak at Healthcare & Life Sciences conferences and seminars and has written many articles on the subject.

He is an active member of the Life Sciences Practice Group of the International Bar Association (IBA - Life Sciences), the Health Care and Life Sciences Practice Group of Lex Mundi, AmCham's Health Group, Food Lawyers Network (FLN), and the Buenos Aires Bar Association.
