

Michael Golub, Deputy Attorney General, New Jersey Division of Gaming Enforcement

michael.golub@njdge.org

Michael Golub is a Deputy Attorney General with the New Jersey Division of Gaming Enforcement. He primarily focuses on the licensing of companies seeking to do business with the casinos and investigating iGaming and sports wagering companies. Recently, he helped draft New Jersey's sports betting regulations and has a lead role in developing and monitoring the State's sports betting integrity policies, as well as speaking on integrity issues to New Jersey colleges and universities. He is the lead attorney on approving sports wagering events in the State and is the Division's principal point of contact for professional and amateur sports leagues. Michael is a graduate of The College of William and Mary and The American University: Washington College of Law. He was recognized by Global Gaming Business Magazine in 2018 as one of the "40 under 40" emerging leaders in gaming.