Global Investigations & Disputes

Secretariat (Singapore)

myauw@secretariat-intl.com

Michelle Yauw specializes in business intelligence, corporate investigations, and due diligence across Asia-Pacific. She supports the team in advising global investors, multinational corporations, and international law firms on governance, regulatory, and stakeholder risks in connection with mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, and complex commercial matters.

Ms. Yauw joins Secretariat from a major global investment bank, where she conducted conflict-of-interest assessments on transactions involving the firm's investment and trading exposures. Prior to that, she was part of the risk advisory and investigations practice at a leading consulting firm, contributing to more than 90 cross-border mandates involving strategic intelligence, open-source research, discreet source inquiries, asset mapping, and ESG-related assessments across Southeast Asia, China, and broader APAC markets.

She is fluent in Bahasa Indonesia, Bahasa Malay, and English, and speaks and reads Korean and Japanese.
