

SETON HALL | LAW

Seton Hall Legislative Journal Symposium
Lessons in Leadership on the 50th Anniversary of Watergate
Friday, October 20, 2023

Nick Akerman
Solo Practitioner
Nick Akerman Law
Panel: 2

Nick Akerman is a sole practitioner in New York City. Mr. Akerman represents clients in complex civil and criminal cases and high-profile government investigations. He has 50 years of legal experience, and helps clients respond to government prosecutions and investigations and assists corporate clients in complex civil litigation.

Prior to private practice, Mr. Akerman served as an Assistant Special Watergate Prosecutor with the under Archibald Cox and Leon Jaworski Assistant Special Watergate Prosecutor. He was an Assistant United States Attorney in the Southern District of New York, where he prosecuted a wide array of white-collar criminal matters.

Mr. Akerman is an expert on the criminal and civil applications of the Racketeer and Corrupt Organizations Statute, the Economic Espionage Act, the federal Securities Laws, and State Trade Secret and Restrictive Covenant Laws. He also is an expert on computer crime and the protection of competitively sensitive information and computer data.

Mr. Akerman appears regularly on MSNBC and CNN concerning topical national issues and speaks and writes regularly on protecting computer data and has been a featured quoted expert on national issues in such publications as the Washington Post, the New York Times, the Atlanta Journal Constitution, Newsweek, The Hill, and Politico.

Mr. Akerman received his JD, cum laude, from Harvard Law School; and his BA, magna cum laude, from the University of Massachusetts. He is admitted to practice in New York, Massachusetts, and the District of Columbia.