

SETON HALL | LAW

Healthcare Compliance
Certificate Program

Paulo Rosito

Partner of Life Sciences & Healthcare

Souto Correa Advogados (São Paulo)

paulo.rosito@soutocorrea.com.br

Paulo Rosito has more than 25 years of experience acting as an in-house counsel in legal departments of big companies of the pharmaceutical, agribusiness and aviation areas, with time spent on private practice in the intellectual property area. He acts strategically in consultive and litigation cases of the Life Sciences area, especially in governmental interactions and relations with a variety of authorities, for example, ANVISA (Brazilian regulatory agency), CMED (Brazilian pharmaceutical price authority) and CONITEC (the Brazilian health technology assessment instrumentality). Due his vast experience, he has worked in a number of negotiation, drafting and review of agreements and contracts both strategic or routine and has an extensive experience in all areas of compliance, such as structuring of policies and procedures (SOPs), investigations and multidisciplinary legal advice.