Rachael Honig

Acting U.S. Attorney for the District of New Jersey

Rachael Honig serves as the Acting U.S. Attorney for the District of New Jersey under the Vacancies Reform Act, as the Office's First Assistant U.S. Attorney. She rejoined the U.S. Attorney's Office as First Assistant in March 2018, after working as a litigation and compliance investigations counsel at a health care company.

Prior to that, Ms. Honig was employed at the U.S. Attorney's Office for just under fourteen years, serving as Counsel to the U.S. Attorney from 2013 to 2016, Deputy Chief of the Criminal Division from 2010 to 2013, and an Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Criminal and Special Prosecutions Divisions from 2003 to 2010. From 2000 to 2003, she was a Litigation Associate at a law firm in Washington, D.C. From 1999 to 2000, she was a judicial law clerk to the Hon. Mary M. Schroeder of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

Ms. Honig received her law degree with High Honors from The University of Chicago Law School in 1999, where she served as a member and a Comment Editor of The University of Chicago Law Review. She received a B.A. in English Language & Literature with General and Departmental Honors from The University of Chicago in 1995.
