Red Romero

Regional Director—Legal and Compliance
Vifor Pharma Asia Pacific (Singapore)

Red Romero is a lawyer by profession and has held different legal and compliance positions in different pharmaceutical companies, in-country, in-region, and globally. Before joining Vifor, he was responsible for Takeda's Global Third Party Compliance Program, where he developed the framework for managing compliance risks for relevant third parties in all regions and business units. He also worked closely with other functions, including Procurement, IT, and Legal, to develop a multi-functional and streamlined approach to managing third-party risks.

Previous to his role in Takeda, Mr. Romero was the Regional Compliance Officer for Teva Pharmaceutical in Asia Pacific, the Regional Legal Counsel for AstraZeneca for the Asia Area, and the Legal & Compliance Officer for AstraZeneca Philippines. Prior to joining the pharmaceutical industry, he had ten years of legal practice, focusing on litigation, contract negotiations, and labor law.

Mr. Romero is a product of the University of the Philippines' Political Science program and the Ateneo Law School Juris Doctor program.
