

SETON HALL | LAW

Healthcare Compliance
Certificate Program

Roeland Van Aelst

EMEA Lead Third Party Intermediary Ethics & Compliance

Johnson & Johnson (Antwerp)

rvaelst@its.jnj.com

Roeland Van Aelst joined Johnson & Johnson in 1987 as a Medical Representative for Janssen Pharmaceuticals. He held various positions of increasing responsibility in both sales and marketing and joined the Compliance organization of Johnson & Johnson in May 2005 for the EMEA region with extension to Asia, Latin America, and Canada in 2008. In 2010, he became responsible for EMEA & Canada cross sector, and acted as Regional Compliance Lead for J&J's Medical Devices business in EMEA since October 2012. He has his current role since November 2019.

Mr. Van Aelst is also the chairman of the MedTech Europe Code Committee and a member of the MedTech Europe Ethics and Compliance Committee. He is a founding member and the current president of ETHICS, an international association of Health Care Compliance professionals.