Santiago Del Río joined Marval O'Farrell Mairal in 2006 and is a partner of the Competition/Antitrust department.

Mr. Del Río regularly advises companies on a wide range of markets regarding their antitrust issues in Argentina. He has extensive experience in handling complex merger control notifications, as well as providing counsel for investigations on antitrust practices, both in their administrative and judicial phases.

Mr. Del Río graduated from the Universidad del Salvador with a law degree in 2005, and later completed a Postgraduate course on Economics for Competition Law (merit) at King's College, London.

Between 2010 and 2011, Mr. Del Río worked at Uría Menéndez in their offices at Madrid and Brussels. He has participated in Phase I and Phase II mergers, investigations of anticompetitive conduct in accordance with Articles 101 and 102 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in appeals before the Court of Justice of the European Union.

Mr. Del Río has published several works related to his area of expertise, including the Argentine chapter for Public Competition Enforcement Review, the Merger Control Review, and Oxford Global Antitrust Compliance Handbook, as well as several pieces for international and local publications.

Mr. Del Río is the current head of the Antitrust Section of the Argentine-Spanish Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Antitrust Section of the City of Buenos Aires Bar Association.
