Sarah diFrancesca

*Executive Director, Compliance,
Dermatology Business Unit
Incyte*

Sarah K. diFrancesca is the Executive Director of Compliance for the Dermatology Business Unit at Incyte, where she is responsible for identifying and prioritizing areas of risk and supporting ethical and risk-based decision-making throughout the business unit. This includes partnering with senior management, overseeing continuous improvement of the company's compliance program, and informing compliance monitoring activities. Prior to joining Incyte, Sarah was a partner at Cooley LLP and Dinsmore & Shohl, where she counseled life sciences clients on regulatory compliance and government fraud investigations.
