Sergio Medina is an Associate Partner in the Forensic & Integrity Services practice at EY, where he serves as the Forensic Market Segment Leader for Consumer & Health Care in LATAM. Based in the Buenos Aires office, Sergio brings over 18 years of experience in providing preventive and detective services to a diverse range of global and local clients.

He specializes in compliance services for the Life Sciences and Medical Devices sectors, and his expertise extends across Argentina and other LATAM countries. Throughout his career, he has led projects focused on anti-bribery and anti-corruption (ABAC) compliance assessments and monitoring, third-party due diligence, ABAC risk assessments, and investigations into bribery and corruption allegations. Additionally, Sergio has experience in financial statement audits and advisory services related to internal control processes.

In his role, Sergio collaborates with colleagues across LATAM to drive regional market development, leveraging his industry knowledge. He is a Certified Public Accountant and holds a Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Palermo in Buenos Aires, Argentina.
