Shirell A. Gross

Vice President and Global Chief Counsel for Global Operations & Supply Chain
Medtronic

Shirell A. Gross, Esq. CLC has built a distinguished career as a senior executive and attorney at Fortune 500 companies. She currently serves as Vice President and Global Chief Counsel for Global Operations & Supply Chain at Medtronic. In this role she leads an organization that provides legal support for global manufacturing, supply chain, enterprise IT/technology agreements, sourcing, trade legal and compliance, real estate, facilities/real estate, transportation, warehouse, logistics, enterprise risk and global customer care and operations. She sits on the AI and CLM Steering Committees.

Shirell is also the immediate past Global Co-Chair of Medtronic's African Descent Network Employee Resource Group.

Previously, Shirell held the position of Vice President, Division Counsel, and Head of Law for two Bayer AG global businesses - diabetes and radiology, which manufactured and distributed medical devices and pharmaceutical products globally. Her responsibilities included legal oversight in commercial, regulatory, supply chain, and public policy.

During a two-year hiatus from law, Shirell became a Certified Life Coach and founded Measure of Ambition LLC, d/b/a ShirellSpeaks. Through this venture she provides keynote speeches, workshops, life and executive coaching, and empowerment events. She remains passionate about mentoring the next generation of diverse business leaders, particularly women of color.

Shirell's career also includes roles at Quest Diagnostics, Aaronson Rappaport Feinstein, and Deutsch. She began her career as an Assistant District Attorney in Bronx, NY.

Her professional recognitions include Medtronic's 2025 African Descent Network's James Dallas Award for Outstanding Leadership, 2024 Global Inclusion Diversity and Equity Leadership Award, as well as the 2024 STEM Outreach Award. She has also been recognized in 2024 Elite 100 by Diversity Women Magazine, the 2022 Policy Trailblazer Award from Executive Women of New Jersey, Savoy magazine's Most Influential Black Lawyers in America, Black Doctors.org's Top Blacks in Healthcare, Hofstra University School of Law's Outstanding Women in Law, and YWCA's Women of Influence.

Shirell is Vice-Chair for the Boys and Girls Club Paterson/Passaic, New Jersey. She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. and The Links Incorporated. She is active in the community and passionate about creating opportunities for young people and disenfranchised communities.
