SHU MIN HO is a partner in Sidley's Singapore office and has significant experience in complex cross-border investigations and compliance counselling, across a diverse range of sectors including life sciences, technology and biotech/biopharma. She has led multi-office teams across Sidley's global network in handling investigations and compliance reviews relating to issues such as bribery and corruption, fraud, data breaches, breach of confidentiality, conflicts of interest, and ESG issues in more than 20 jurisdictions across Asia, Europe and the Middle East. Shu Min has also worked with clients to develop compliance and internal controls policies, and regularly advises on FCPA due diligence, drug/devices regulation and disease awareness programs.

Most recently, Shu Min has been honored with a position in the Global Investigations Review (GIR) 2024 "40 Under 40" list, which celebrates the "next crop of up-and-coming investigations specialists" around the globe. She has also been recognized in the Asian Legal Business Asia 40 Under 40 2024 list, which honors "the most accomplished lawyers in Asia under 40 years of age". In the 2024 and 2025 editions of Chambers Asia Pacific, Shu Min was named as an "Up and Coming" lawyer for Corporate Investigations/Anti-Corruption: International. She is further recognized as a "Future Star" for White Collar Crime - International Firms by Benchmark Litigation Asia-Pacific (2024), a Recommended Lawyer for White Collar Crime by Legal 500 Asia Pacific (2023-2025) and as a "Rising Star" by Asian Legal Business' Rising Stars Singapore 2022 List.
