---

Stephanie Chew

Partner, Advisory Risk Consulting – Governance, Risk, and Compliance Services
KPMG Advisory (China) Limited (Shanghai)

Stephanie Chew has over 18 years of professional experience in audit and compliance with an international accounting firm as well as Fortune-500 multi-national companies, working in Singapore and China. She accumulated most of her experience in the Life Sciences industry as internal auditor and compliance officer for Greater China and Asia Pacific reporting directly to global. Stephanie in-house role is to partner with business to ensure sustainable business growth in an operationally effective, efficient and compliant manner.

Ms. Chew technical expertise includes internal audit, SOX, risk management, ethics, compliance, investigation, operational process improvement, data analytics, internal control and financial statement audit. She is a well-recognized subject matter expert in ethics and compliance field specifically in the area of anti-bribery and anti-corruption, where she has participated in the drafting of national and international code of conduct policy (AdvaMed China, AdvaMed India and APEC Business Ethics for SMEs Healthcare sector respectively).

Ms. Chew has been involved in projects such as setting up compliance function and program in Greater China and across Asia Pacific, annual risk assessment and monitoring program design and implementation including system implementation data analytics and dashboard, 3rd Party risk management, compliance program effectiveness assessment, conduct investigation, sales operations and channel management process enhancement, M&A and integration, lead and conduct internal audit projects to evaluate company's' internal processes and controls as well as lead and conduct SOX testing and review.

Ms. Chew is a Singaporean based in Shanghai since 2011, and has obtained her Bachelor of Commerce at Macquarie University in Sydney and Master of Law at Fudan University in China.