Sunita is Counsel at Bristol Myers Squibb, supporting Cell Therapy commercialization, development, manufacturing, and operations. Sunita also serves as a committee leader on the Law & Policy Department's Engagement and Inclusion Committee. Prior to joining BMS, she was a Senior Counsel at AmerisourceBergen where she supported the Health Systems and Government Services unit and an Associate at Lowenstein Sandler LLP where she focused primarily on corporate and life science matters. She was also a committee leader in Lowenstein Sandler's Diversity Leadership Network and helped organize events such as the firm's first Law School Summit for Diverse Law Students. Sunita served as the Director of Public Relations for the South Asian Bar Association of New Jersey from 2022 through 2023.

Sunita graduated summa cum laude from Rutgers University, where she was a member of the Honors Program and served on the Executive Board of the Association of Indians at Rutgers. She then earned her J.D. cum laude from Seton Hall University School of Law with a concentration in Health Law and was Business Editor of the Seton Hall Law Review. During her time in law school, Sunita also served as President of the Asian-Pacific American Law Students Association.
