Vikas Khanna

First Assistant U.S. Attorney

U.S. Attorney's Office, District of New Jersey

Vikas Khanna is the First Assistant U.S. Attorney for the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey. From 2019-January, 2022, he worked as a partner at Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP in New York. From 2011-2019, Mr. Khanna served as an Assistant United States Attorney in the District of New Jersey, first as a line assistant in the General Crimes Unit and the Special Prosecutions Division, before being appointed as Deputy Chief of the Health Care and Government Fraud Unit in June 2017 and then as Deputy Chief of the Criminal Division in June 2018. In the latter role, Mr. Khanna supervised criminal and civil AUSAs in the Health Care and Government Fraud, Opioid Abuse Prevention and Enforcement, and Asset Recovery and Money Laundering Units. Before becoming an AUSA, he served in the private sector from 2007 to 2010 and, in 2006, clerked for the Honorable Mark Wolf, Chief Judge in the District of Massachusetts.
