

SETON HALL | LAW

Seton Hall Legislative Journal Symposium
Ballots and Democracy: A New Scholarly Agenda
Friday, February 24, 2023

---

Yael Bromberg

Principal

Bromberg Law LLC

Yael Bromberg is Principal of Bromberg Law LLC in New Jersey. She is also of counsel to Weissman & Mintz, LLC and Chief Counsel for Voting Rights for the Andrew Goodman Foundation. Bromberg has litigated in federal courts across the country and in New Jersey. She previously worked in the Washington, D.C. headquarters of Common Cause, and taught and supervised litigation in Georgetown University Law Center's Civil Rights Clinic and Voting Rights Institute. Bromberg was a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Dickinson R. Debevoise in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey. Bromberg is a graduate of Douglass College and Rutgers School of Law-Newark, where she served as a Kinoy/Stavis Fellow in the Rutgers Constitutional Rights Clinic and received upon graduation the Eli Jarmel Memorial Award for greatest interest and proficiency in public interest law. In 2015, she received the Eric Neisser Public Service Alumni Award in recognition of her work in democracy law. Bromberg's scholarship, Youth Voting Rights and the Unfulfilled Promise of the Twenty-Sixth Amendment, was recently published in the University of Pennsylvania Journal of Constitutional Law. Bromberg is barred in New Jersey, New York, and the District of Columbia.