Zoë Leid is a second-year JD candidate at Seton Hall University School of Law. She is a member of the National Black Law Students Association and the Black Entertainment and Sports Lawyers Association. Zoë also volunteers as a Development Coach at UX All Stars Project, assisting in using performing arts techniques to facilitate conversations in aims of bridging the gap between low-income teens, law enforcement and affluent members of the New York City. She graduated from The College of New Rochelle in 2018, with a Bachelor of Arts in Communication Arts, focusing on television and legal studies. Prior to law school, Zoë was a Legal Coordinator for NBC Universal and a Special Education afterschool Teacher in New York City. While pursuing her J.D., she will also concentrate on GHAmES (Gaming, Hospitality, Entertainment, and Sports law). Zoë will be an employment law, summer associate at Epstein Becker & Green, P.C.
