SETON HALL UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, Newark, NJ (8/2010 to present)

- Professor of Law
- Subject Matters: Constitutional Law; Clinic
- Director, Equal Justice Clinic, a five-credit clinic that works at the intersection of civil rights and criminal justice. Currently, the clinic is addressing settlement monitoring of a consent decree related to conditions at an urban county jail, is counsel in litigation seeking public access to information regarding private prison contractors' influence on immigration detention policy, and is challenging New Jersey's unemployment compensation law on behalf of a person who lost his job based upon an unfounded arrest. The clinic is also co-counsel in state post-conviction proceedings on behalf of a death-sentenced prisoner in Alabama, represents individual clients on reentry matters, and is involved in habeas and other litigation on behalf of immigrants seeking relief from removal.

JOHN J. GIBBONS FELLOW IN PUBLIC INTEREST AND CONSTITUTIONAL LAW
GIBBONS P.C., Newark, NJ (2008-2010)

- Represented individual and organizational clients in wide range of public interest litigation in federal, state, and immigration court involving human rights, racial justice, criminal procedure, women's rights, voting rights, FOIA, gun control, and the death penalty.
- Highlights: authored summary judgment motion in ACLU's "Torture FOIA" litigation that led to the release of four, now-repudiated Office of Legal Counsel memoranda purporting to authorize CIA torture abroad; contributed to criminal defense of Ali al-Marri, the last "enemy combatant" held on U.S. soil; authored amicus briefs to U.S. Supreme Court in Sullivan v. Florida; Graham v. Florida, arguing that life without parole sentences for juveniles violate the Eighth Amendment; helped litigate challenge to New Jersey's civil union law on behalf of same-sex couples denied opportunity to marry; defended Jersey City's gun control measure on behalf of community organization before the New Jersey Supreme Court.

SETON HALL UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, Newark, NJ (8/2005-8/2008)

- Visiting Clinical Professor
Immigration & Human Rights Clinic (7/2007-8/2008)
 - Supervised five credit, semester-long immigration and human rights clinic focused on asylum, trafficking, and obtaining protection for immigrant victims of domestic violence;
- Clinical Teaching Fellow
Immigration & Human Rights Clinic (2005-2007), Civil Litigation Clinic (2005-2008)
 - Co-supervised students in five credit, semester-long immigration and human rights clinic;
 - Co-supervised students in five credit, semester-long civil litigation clinic focused on civil rights, consumer fraud, and predatory lending.

CLINIC ACHIEVEMENTS

- Colon v. Passaic County Jail: Along with co-counsel ACLU of New Jersey and Dechert LPP, obtained federal court approval of a comprehensive settlement agreement in Eighth Amendment challenge to overcrowded, unsafe, unsanitary, and degrading conditions of confinement at county jail.

- Matter of AT: Obtained asylum for Malian victim of female genital mutilation (FGM) after extensive litigation; collaborated with team of attorneys and advocates nationwide in advocacy effort that successfully persuaded former Attorney General Mukasey in 2008 to reverse the Board of Immigration Appeals and issue a precedential decision establishing that victims of gender-based violence are entitled to the same regulatory presumptions as other refugees under the asylum law.
- Filed summary judgment brief in federal civil rights police misconduct case against City of Trenton that resulted in $700,000 settlement for minor daughter of woman killed as a result of domestic violence.
- Petitioned Inter-American Commission on Human Rights in challenge to unlawful detention of Haitian political prisoner; client subsequently released.
- Represented numerous clients in successful claims for asylum, VAWA relief, and T-visas.
- Omar/Munaf v. Geren: Co-wrote amicus brief to the U.S. Supreme Court on behalf of leading human rights organizations arguing that substantive due process and the Convention Against Torture limit the government's ability to transfer two U.S. citizens detained by the United States military to Iraqi custody;
- Qassim v. Bush: Co-authored brief to the U.S. Supreme Court on behalf of amici curiae, 300+ Guantanamo detainees, documenting coercive conditions of confinement and abusive interrogation at Guantanamo.
- Bimenyimana v. Holder, co-wrote amicus brief to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit in removal case on behalf of 30 human rights scholars arguing that the absolute prohibition on transfers to torture established in international and domestic human rights law bars removal based upon diplomatic assurances from countries that torture.
- Khouzam v. Hogan: Co-wrote amicus brief to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit in removal case arguing that diplomatic assurances from countries that torture should be rejected as inherently unreliable under the Convention Against Torture;
- Arar v. Ashcroft: authored section of brief to the Second Circuit on behalf of amici curiae, constitutional law professors, arguing that extraordinary rendition is unconstitutional.
