Attendance Policy for Part-time Weekend Students

Part-time J.D. students participating in the weekend program will be expected to attend all scheduled classes. Absences may be excused by the Director or the Associate Dean with documentation of exigent or unforeseen circumstances. Students missing more than 25% of the scheduled classes, for any reason, will be administratively withdrawn. Some courses, including some legal practice courses, and some professors may adopt a more stringent attendance policy if the nature of the course requires it. All assignments that are assigned/completed through the distance learning component of any weekend course must be completed in full in order for the student to receive credit for the course. If these assignments are completed late it is within the professor's purview to take this into account in determining the student's grade.
