

SETON HALL | LAW

“Publication” of Written Work and Assignments

By enrollment in any course and by submitting written assignments and work, students understand they are granting the professor permission under the Federal Education Records Act and a limited license to publish that work for the purposes of grading. That limited license extends to submission of the work, within the professor’s sole discretion, to various electronic grading tools (e.g., grading books, cite checkers, Safe Assignment within Blackboard etc.) and to other faculty members.

Updated: 2018-06-15