

SETON HALL | LAW

Healthcare Compliance
Certificate Program

Christie Camelio

Senior Vice President, Chief Compliance Officer

Insmed

christie.camelio@insmed.com

Senior Vice President, Chief Compliance Officer at Insmed; Former Senior Vice President, Chief Compliance and Risk Officer, EQRx; Former Chief Compliance, Ethics, and Risk Management Officer, TG Therapeutics; Former Vice President / Deputy Global Chief Compliance Officer, Celgene; Former Executive Director and Head of Risk Management Oversight Center of Excellence, Novartis

Christie is currently Senior Vice President and Chief Compliance Officer at Insmed, a global biopharmaceutical company on a mission to transform the lives of patients with serious and rare diseases. She has over 25 years of industry experience with roles spanning Commercial, Medical, Legal, Compliance, Communications, and Advocacy. She has extensive experience implementing, guiding, and constructing proactive healthcare compliance, corporate compliance, and enterprise risk management programs for some of the world's most successful pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies. She has extensive experience designing organizational governance structures for optimal operations, ensuring a customized approach that is right-sized for the company. Christie brings deeply rooted passion to enterprise-wide global compliance with intent focus on managing stakeholder relationships through the intersection of compliance and bottom-line results to enable innovation while proactively managing risk.