Dan Kahn is a partner in Davis Polk's White Collar Defense & Investigations group. Dan represents companies and individuals in government enforcement matters, conducting internal investigations and in compliance matters. A former prosecutor, he served for more than 11 years in senior roles at the Department of Justice.

The Wall Street Journal described Dan as DOJ's "most recognizable expert on the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act." At DOJ, Dan was acting Deputy Assistant Attorney General of the Criminal Division, Chief of the Fraud Section, and Chief of the FCPA Unit. He supervised matters involving the FCPA, money laundering, and fraud related to digital currency, fintechs, commodities, securities, healthcare and procurement. At DOJ, Dan played a central role in developing enforcement policies on the FCPA, corporate enforcement, compliance and monitors. He worked with authorities in the U.S., Europe, Asia and Latin America, and tried a number of cases to verdict.

Dan teaches Corporate Criminal Investigations at Harvard Law School and Global Anti-Corruption at Georgetown Law Center.
